

“The Problems of Literary Genres” – guidelines for reviewers

- 1) Is the main thesis of the article innovative and original?
- 2) In what way does the article fit the main profile of the journal?
- 3) Is the article able to get interest of the all-Polish readers or international readers?
- 4) Is the article keeping stylistic and linguistic standards of the language in which it is going to be published?
- 5) If the article is publishable, is it necessary to correct it? What are the suggested corrections?
- 6) Do you unequivocally recommend it for publication? Please, state it clearly.
- 7) Please, list all limitations of the article and its strengths.
- 8) Please conclude at the end with the following formula: "the fact of a conflict of interest in the context of this review is unknown / known to me"; underline the right word: unknown / known.